

SECOND CHANCE

(L&M: Uli `Gibson` Hoffmann)

When you`re looking back , thinking of the past
Of the time that slipped away
It`s a shame never could have been the one
The only one , for anyone

Hey brother , you are to late - It`s already done
The game is over , that`s a fact
Saw that beauty right across - Smiling , yearning eyes
The moment`s gone , you missed the train

Take the second chance , `cause it might be the last
Do not hesitate , the time is running fast
Take the second chance , the time is running fast , so fast

Thinking `bout the future - Staying , leaving, what to do ?
So many options , where to go ?
Growing older every minute - The time is now !
So catch the moment , be on time !

Take the second chance , `cause it might be the last
Do not hesitate , the time is running fast
Take the second chance , the time is running fast
Take the second chance , the time is running fast , so fast

Take the second chance , `cause it might be the last
Do not hesitate , the time is running fast
Take the second chance , the time is running fast
Take the second chance , the time is running fast , so fast
